

Einārs Everss is a Latvian double bassist currently based in Copenhagen. Since April 2019 he is a member of DR Symfoniorkestret as an assistant principal of the double bass section. After graduating his Master's study programme in Janáček Academy of Performing Arts (Brno, Czechia) with prof. Miloslav Jelínek, he is currently studying in Soloists class in the Royal Danish Academy of Music with prof. Michal Stadnicki. Einārs is a prizewinner of competitions like The 3rd International Stockholm Competition 2014 (Stockholm, Sweden), The 7th International F. Simandl Competition 2014 (Blatná, Czechia), The 7th International K. D. von Dittersdorf Competition 2017 (Banská Bystrica, Slovakia) and semi-finalist in Markneukirchen Wettbewerb 2017 (Markneukirchen, Germany). As a soloist or chamber musician he has performed in countries like Czechia, Denmark, Latvia, Lithuania, Russia, Slovakia, Spain etc. and with orchestras like Simfonia Concertante (Riga, Latvia), Chamber Orchestra of Rezekne (Rezekne, Latvia) and PKF – Prague Philharmonia (Prague, Czechia). He was also one of the jury members of J. M. Sperger International Double Bass Quarantine Challenge in summer 2020.